

EMMAUS

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

OUR VISION

Embodied Formation for the Church to see:

1. Existing Churches Grow in Health
2. More Churches Connected Relationally
3. New Churches Planted

OUR CORE VALUES

1. Ecclesial Theology—training in and for the church.
2. Embodied Formation—learning from one another, with one another, at the table.
3. Humble Orthodoxy—charity and conviction for the historic and global church.

Serving Churches

"It has been a joy for Local to be a supporting partner of Emmaus Theological Seminary because ETS is a gift not only to our city and our church but also to the body of Christ. We are grateful not just for the excellence of training and instruction, but for the heart and humility in which that is carried out. The beauty of the orthodox truth of the gospel being held to, coupled with the appreciation and celebration of the diversity of the body of Christ is a needed breath of fresh air."

Serving Students

"My experience at Emmaus has been outstanding. Since enrolling, I've grown as a pastor. I've grown in my understanding of the Bible and in my understanding of the global church. I've been sharpened as a preacher and as a teacher. And maybe the most unexpected benefit, is that I've gained friends in other pastors that I can rely on for guidance, camaraderie, and support."

Tim Pollock, Pastor, Cedar Church
2nd Year MAET Student

CHURCH PARTNERS

We believe that a good seminary can change an ecclesial landscape by fostering church health, connectivity, and mission in its region. But to see that vision realized, we know that churches must also believe it. Emmaus has partnered with organizations and local churches to see its vision come to fruition. Partnerships can include prayer, student-mentorship, financial giving, hosting a local hub, scholarships, and more. Additionally, we want these partnerships to also be of great benefit to our church partners and advocates. Church Partner Benefits:
